AGENDA

Public Appearances

Public Comments

Per Sections 19.83(2) and 19.84(2) of the Wisconsin Statutes, that the District Commission will receive information from the District residents and District property owners for a three minute time period per person. Be further advised that after all of the public comments are completed, the District Commissioners may have limited discussion on the information received; however, no action will be taken under public comments or at the District Commission meeting unless specifically set forth as a separate action item. At their discretion, the District Commissioners may direct that the matters raised be placed on a future District Commissioner agenda. Public comments should be addressed to the District Commission as a body, any questions to an individual District Commissioner or staff person will be deemed out of order. Neither the District Commissioners nor the District staff will generally answer questions or ever enter into any sort of back and forth dialogue with the speakers under public comments. The purpose of public comments is to listen to information from the District residents and District property owners. All comments, questions, and concerns should be presented in a respectful, professional manner. No political statements/ advertising or assignment of time from one speaker to another will be allowed.
