Public Comments:

Due to COVID 19 and Wisconsin State Mandates to remain isolated the April monthly Commissioners' meeting will be conducted by video teleconference. Anyone may join the conference using any computer or smartphone by following the instructions below, and also those once connected. Be advised the video teleconference will be recorded and made available to others, your image and everything behind you that is in view of your device's camera will be recorded and may be seen by others. By signing onto the video teleconference, you consent to the possibility of being recorded. You may 'X-out' of being recorded, but since the video teleconferencing is provided by a third party no assurance whatsoever is given by District your image will not be recorded anyway.

Video teleconferencing is arranged through GoToMeeting, a commercially available app. It is HIGHLY RECOMMENDED that you access the software link 10-15 minutes before the start of the meeting allowing yourself enough time to familiarize yourself and join the meeting at the beginning. This is commercially available software, District makes no warranties or assertions regarding the security or quality of the software, or any settings it may make to your computer or device to operate.

Please join our meeting from your computer, tablet or smartphone.
